

This section left blank all manure applications are made to owned ground. No manure easements are needed.